He Created Atlanta's Most Accommodating Neighborhood Restaurant

Hal Nowak, Owner, Hal's on Old Ivy

Known for his love of food, wine and entertaining, Hal Nowak made his dream a reality when he opened Hal's on Old Ivy in Atlanta almost five years ago. As one of Atlanta's most frequented neighborhood restaurants, Hal's on Old Ivy reflects the owner's spirited taste as well as his customers' appreciation for life's finer things. By accommodating every taste and preference, Hal boasts an eclectic clientele from around Atlanta. Whether his customers swing by after work to meet friends or stay to sample the Continental menu, Hal knows how to satisfy each individual taste. This is why he displays the symbol of The Accommodation Program, to let his customers know their non-smoking or smoking preference will be accommodated. It's just another way Hal personally assures customer satisfaction. For more information about The Accommodation Program and a detailed list of participating establishments in Atlanta, please call 1-800-494-7444.

The Sign of An Accommodating Restaurant

NON-SMOKERS
AND SMOKERS
WELCOME

Sponsored by The Accommodation Program courtesy of Philip Morris Incorporated.

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/qzhp0003

2061036917